

Seniors Busy In Last Days

The Baccalaureate Service on Sunday, at 4 p.m. in the South High gymnasium was the first event of several for the 619 Spartan Seniors who were being graduated from South High this June.

Pastor William J. Roleder of the Fifth Lutheran Church addressed the graduates, their parents, and friends on the subject "Faith Challenges Futility."

"In meeting the future the only answer to the destructive attitude of futility, defeat, failure and skepticism is the need for a dynamic spiritual faith," the pastor said.

NEXT EVENT was the Senior Breakfast in the school cafeteria on Tuesday with the theme "Happiness Is." Decorations depicted those events in the lives of seniors that have stood out over the past four years. Pamela Arndt, class president, was the master of ceremonies and the welcoming address was given by Dr. John A. Lucas, principal of South High. Administrative personnel and senior class teachers were guests at the breakfast. Committee chairmen were Nancy Menashe, Pamela

Arndt, Kristina Miller and Cheryl Aston. Mrs. Betty Lowe, of the Social Science Department, was the sponsor. THE SENIOR Tea was planned today from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Cafetorium. This senior function is a formal gesture to honor parents of the senior class and is served by volunteer junior girls. Dr. Lucas, Senior class officers, administrative and teacher representatives were to be on the receiving line. Committee chairmen were Linda Keenen and Sue Aldred. Miss Norma Muesing, Chairman of the Home Economics Department, was the sponsor.
